

Dear Ministry Partner,

I often look at the beautiful faces of the children in the orphanage and wonder how people could be so cruel to their own children. Sometimes, though, it's through the cruelty of man that we learn more of the awesomeness of God! It's really an amazing blessing to be able to see the children growing up and doing so well physically and spiritually. Praise God as Arianne, Ella, Lorence, and Isaac followed the Lord in baptism this month! These four recently made good professions of faith and can clearly explain God's way of salvation. Please pray for all of them to grow spiritually and that all of kids will come to receive salvation!

Please pray also for a new child who came in this month, 12yo Gena. She is from the well known Badjao tribe who are commonly seen in our parts begging on the streets. As a result of this lifestyle Gena was left without any family and doesn't even know her real first and last name or when her birthday is as these kids rarely ever had a birth certificate processed for them by the parents. Through dental age assessment she is presumed to be 12 years old. Gena is a very sweet and bright girl who just needs to be given a chance, as so many others need also. We'll be putting Gena into school at the start of next school year and we're excited to see what God is going to do with her life! Shortly after Gena came in to us she noticed that the other kids who are able to read had their own Bibles and were reading them regularly. Gena asked if she could also have her own Bible and she sure was excited to start reading it!

Please continue praying for good health always in all of the kids and for their schooling. Praise God for having provided us with a full time tutor to help the kids who struggle the most in school! Please keep praying also for expansion this year; that the Lord will provide more land, facilities, workers, and supporters. In behalf of the children, thanks so much to every orphanage supporter; God bless you more and more for all you do!

Yours in Christ,
Jeremy and Kristine Ferguson (Orphanage Directors)
