PHILIPPINE BAPTIST MINISTRY

July 2022 Newsletter

Dear Ministry Partners,

This month was a fun-filled month overflowing with all kinds of exciting activities for the kids! As a reward for those who have shown excellent behavior lately the small kids got a big resort all to themselves for an entire day and swam and played their hearts out! The bigger kids got a one day beach outing in an area a couple of hours away from us and had a blast playing in the ocean, boat riding, snorkeling, and also doing a little bit of exploring on a beautiful island!

Several of the children were also involved in a four day music at the church where they learned to play violins, flutes, and even a trombone! Some of the kids were beginners, others were able to improve upon their prior skills, and all of them did a great job at the recital afterwards! It's a great blessing to see these kids serving the Lord in the church's music ministry!

Special payer requests:

1. The kids start back in school this coming August 22 and it looks like most of them will finally be going back to in person classes. Please pray they will excel in their studies.
2. Spiritual, physical, and emotional well-being of all the children.
3. Operation for John Rick (preparations are still ongoing).
4. The Lord's provisions to construct more rooms.
5. We will need several more house parents soon and another social worker.
6. We're currently processing our license renewal with the Department of Social Welfare and Development and, soon after, will be going forward with the accreditation process.

This month we celebrated the birthdays of Mhazzy (4yo), Jaira (6yo), Jay Ric (10yo), and Sheina (12yo)! Thanks to everyone who is doing so much to help these kids, God bless you all!

Yours in Christ,
Jeremy and Kristine Ferguson (Orphanage Directors)
